Notice of non-compliant amendment

The last set of claims properly submitted for examination was submitted on February 2nd 2004. This set of claim included claims 98-100 and 104-204 pending with claims 1-97, 101-103, and 205 cancelled.

Subsequent amendment to the claims submitted on February 17th, 2005 present a copy of the claims that was non-legible included improper status identifiers and further re-introduced claims previously cancelled into prosecution. After the cancellation of the claim number it may not be re-introduced into prosecution (See 37 CFR 1.121(c)) Responsive to this amendment a notice of non-compliant was mailed by the Examiner on July 14th, 2005.

The Applicant's responses dated July 22nd, 2005 didn't present the pending claims on a clean sheet (Absent the inclusion of amendments directed to other portions of the application) or correct the issues surrounding the re-introduction of cancelled claim numbers and improper status identifiers associated therewith.

The application is presented absent a proper listing of the pending claims and accordingly it is unknown exactly how many claims are pending and the status of the respective claims.
